THE 32nd ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON THE PSYCHOLOGY OF THE SELF

THE FORWARD EDGE OF SELF PSYCHOLOGY

Dear Colleagues,

Please join us in Chicago, Illinois on October 22 - 25, 2009 for the annual IAPSP Conference on the Psychology of the Self. This year's conference, "The Forward Edge of Self Psychology" honors the contributions of Marian Tolpin and addresses the development of self psychology in broader neuroscience, relational and multicultural perspectives.

On Thursday, full-day and half-day Pre-Conference Sessions will allow participants to choose morning and afternoon sessions that approach the theme from different perspectives. After a welcome reception on Thursday evening, the main meeting begins with a keynote lecture entitled "Reflections on Marian Tolpin and the Forward Edge" by Frank Lachmann.

Panel presentations begin Friday morning and continue on Saturday, with a summation of the panels on Sunday morning. Panel I will focus on Empathy and the Forward Edge: 21st Century Perspectives on Empathy; Panel II will highlight "The Forward Edge of Theory: Self Psychology and Relational Responses to a Clinical Case"; and Panel III will address "Social Issues and Cultural Diversity: The Expanded Realm of Self Psychology". Following the second and third panels, attendees will break into small discussion groups to consider the presentations. Original paper workshop sessions are scheduled on Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning.

Anna Ornstein will deliver The Kohut Memorial Lecture entitled "What Do We Inherit? Comments on the Intergenerational Transmission of Values and Ideals," with an introduction by James Fisch. The conference will end Sunday afternoon following a "Plenary Summation" by Judith Guss Teicholz.
